Solomon's wisdom for a fulfilling life requires you to...

1) Rejoice in your _____ (vs. 11:9a)

If you are young, go on, enjoy your youth and vitality. Satisfy your heart's desires in intelligent pleasure. Be as carefree as you can. But remember that youth does not last, and that God will judge you for the way you have used these years (9–10).¹

"Cheerfulness, here, is not merely permitted; it is commanded, and represented as an essential element of piety" (Hengstenberg).²

2) Reflect on the coming _____ (vs. 11:9b)

"The two terms seem to cancel out the other. How can this be explained? Enjoy life but do not commit iniquity. The balance that is called for insures that enjoyment is not reckless, sinful abandonment. Pleasure is experienced in faith and obedience, for as Solomon has said repeatedly, one can only receive true satisfaction as a gift from God." – John MacArthur

3) Remove _____ from your heart (vs. 11:10)

This means to "remove from your life the sins that cause sorrow" – Warren Wiersbe.

4) Remember your _____ (vs. 12:1-2)

"Real men do live for Christ," he said. "It is important to make your peace with Christ while the opportunity exists. Life is so fragile that you never know when it's going to be over. It could be over in the blink of an eye, and then it's too late to accept God's gift of salvation." – Chuck Norris
