

Faithful Parenting

Discussion Questions for Genesis 18:16-21

What story is happening in the context of Genesis 18?

In Genesis 18:27-33, how many people need to be righteous for God not to destroy the city?

Lot and his wife had two daughters and many servants. What does the conversation that Abraham just had with God (18:27-33) reveal about Lot and his ability to lead his household (children and servants) to follow the ways of God in a pagan city?

What does this story have to say about one Godly family and its influence on a whole city?

What actions made Abraham successful in passing down the worship of God in his home?

What actions can you perform to successfully pass down the worship of God in your own home?

How important is living a life of righteousness and justice?

As America is currently experiencing an erosion of the Christian family, what specific actions can parents perform to disciple their children other than bringing them to church?

Do you think that it is wrong for a parent to force his/her children to attend church?

What are some ways you can influence your children/grandchildren for Christ?