Discussion Questions for Ephesians 6:15

Why is it good news to be reminded that it is your God who reigns?

How does Jesus give us peace in our own flawed efforts to reach out with the good news?

In what ways does the enemy attack your readiness that comes from the gospel of peace?

In what ways have you experienced Satan's attacks through division in your relationships—friends, family, co-workers, and church members? How have those experiences affected you and your relationship with God?

How is God calling you to put on his footwear?

Who do you know who would benefit from God's peace? Make a list of three or four people with whom you would love to share this good news. Then ask God to create opportunities for that conversation.
